

The following pieces of Ancient Music were furnished to the Editor by a Gentleman of Note in the Highlands of Scotland, were composed originally for the Harp and which were handed down to him by his Ancestors who learned the same of the famous Rory Daul a celebrated Harper in the Reign of Queen Ann — These tunes are called in our language Ports, and were composed either for Religious Worship, or on Heroic Subjects.

Air by Fingal

Very Slow

Air by Fingal.

Very Slow

Air by Fingal.

Very Slow